V. Rev. Fr. Theodore Bobosh
Chairman, Ethics Committee
Metropolitan Council
Orthodox Church in America
8711 Centerridge Pt
Dayton, OH 45458

Dear Fr. Theodore:

Christ is risen!

Please consider this letter a supplement to my initial letter of complaint dated May 15, 2011.

Mr. Mark Stokoe's latest posting on the "OCANews" blog that he controls unilaterally and with accountability to no one ("+Jonah - In His Own Words," posted May 21, 2011) continues his unauthorized and unethical exploitation of private communications among clergy of the Orthodox Church in America (OCA). This time Mr. Stokoe has published the "draft agenda and opening talk" that the Metropolitan himself apparently shared with a "small circle of intimates" prior to the meeting of OCA bishops in Santa Fe, New Mexico, in February.

I urge the Ethics Committee of the Metropolitan Council to consider my initial complaint—reinforced by yet another instance of Mr. Stokoe's relentless ad hominem editorial crusade against Metropolitan Jonah as primate of the OCA—as its highest priority and to act quickly and decisively before Mr. Stokoe publishes additional purloined communications with the patina of respectability that membership on the Metropolitan Council affords. Whether or not Mr. Stokoe's motives or intentions are honorable, the means he has chosen to accomplish those ends are, by any Orthodox teleological assessment, needlessly harmful to the privacy and personal dignity of the targets of his hostility and beneath the dignity of a member of the Metropolitan Council.

Your brother in Christ,

Archpriest Alexander F. C. Webster, PhD
Chaplain (Colonel), U.S. Army Reserve (Retired)
